

PRIVACY NOTICE

Collection of Personal Health Information

We collect personal health information about you directly from you or from the person acting on your behalf. The personal health information that we collect may include, for example, your name, date of birth, address, health history, and a record of the individual support you receive from Habitat staff (if applicable).

Occasionally, we collect personal health information about you from other sources if we have obtained your consent to do so or if the law permits us to do so. We make sure that only those people who need to see your personal records are allowed to look at them. We protect your information through our administrative policies and by adopting appropriate safeguards and security measures.

Use and Disclosure of Personal Health Information

We may use or disclose your personal health information to:

- communicate with your various health care providers including your family physician and/or other health care institutions for continuity of care, in order to treat/support and care for you (with your permission);
- plan, administer and manage our internal operations, and conduct risk-management activities;
- conduct quality improvement activities (such as sending client satisfaction surveys);
- teach, conduct research (only under strict rules overseen by a research ethics board) and compile statistics;
- comply with legal and regulatory requirements; and
- fulfill other purposes permitted or required by law.

We can assure you that only staff who need your personal health information for direct care or administrative purposes are authorized to access your record of personal health information.

A client's instruction cannot prevent us from recording information that is required by law, professional standards or our practice.

To Access or Correct Your Information

If you believe a record of personal health information held by Habitat Services is inaccurate or incomplete, you may make a written request for correction. Please contact: Connie La Marca, Director of Finance, Habitat Services, 2238 Dundas Street West, Suite 301, Toronto, ON, M6R 3A9, Tel: (416)537-2721, ext. 225.
